6. How to make distinctions between proprietary work and public sciology

Departmental reviewers must determine whether or not proprietary work can be included as SDUW RID FDQGLGDWH¶VIStKeEc@sle Inh&neeviewersOcBnnhot SevRetw WothROLR research and research outcomes, e.g. an evaluation or marketing report bbonpletQGHUD³GR not-SXEOL®VOKN KROUUH´SURSULHWDU\DJUHHPHQWZLWKDQRUJDQL appropriate for inclusion in a terre and promotion portfolioln cases where all or part of the data, research instruments, and/or outcomes can be reviewed (albeit with some locational or respondent data identifiers suppressed for confidentiality purposes) such research is appropriate in the review of public scholarship.

File:pubsocstandards290402doc