

Case 1: If you have never taken a course in this language and are not a heritage speaker

Register in 101

Case 2: If you earned AP, CLEP, or IB course credits

Case 3: If you have previous/transfer college credit or have completed a preceding LUC course

Register in next level course

Case 4: Previous high school course work

If you took Latin or ancient Greek go here or contact Classical Studies Dept

If you took Chinese, French, German, Italian, Russian or Spanish go here to take placement exam. Record your exam results.

If you studied FL in High School	...And your placement score was
1 year	101 or 102
2 years	102 or 103
3 years*	103 or 104
4 years	104 or 250

If so register at the indicated level

If not and the exam has placed you at a lower or higher level than shown on the chart, go to FL Specialist

Case 5: If this FL is spoken at home, and you have little or no course work, you qualify as a heritage speaker

For French, German, or Spanish go here to take exam. Record your exam results.

For other FL's, discuss placement with college advisor, and ideally with FL Placement Coordinator before semester begins

If during the first day(s) of the semester you determine that the course content is too hard or too easy, speak to
